

POLITICAL LETTERS.

Mount Sinai's Vote—Fifty-Six Out of Sixty for Hancock.

To the EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: There are about sixty voters in this village, fifteen of whom are Democrats and will vote for Gen. Hancock, providing they get to the polls. There seems to be very little interest manifested here, and many of the voters, I am afraid, for want of conveyance, will not be able to get to the poll. The poll is in an adjourned state, hence many have taken a ride to the Tivoli now, the only daily paper taken here. An old teacher school in this village, but about day I shall give toward the redemption of the nation.

The Congressman is a stand Democrat, having held the office of Representative for several years, and every year has contributed toward the election of the Republican candidate, but it writes them that he was beaten by the Democratic candidate, W. D. Davis.

Mount Sinai, Dutchess County, N. Y., Oct. 25.

Shut Up Shop and Vote for Hancock.

To the EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Would you be so kind as to repeat the business houses to close up on election day? Start the ball and let it get rolling. We are a people of reason, and if some men in our store I have written to you. Make it a public affair.

One Fraudulent Turn Deserves Another.

To the EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: There is always a day when he has not returned to Washington it is time for him to hurry back. As November approaches it becomes daily more and more clear that the Democratic party are about to be again successful at the polls, and Hayes ought now to be consulting with Sherman & Co., and making out his list of visiting statesmen.

The sure, if Hancock is elected, they will find a much tougher job before them than they had in 1860, and a more difficult history to face than Garfield the popular verdict, Grant did for him.

The Presidents, the people may get used to it, and in the end come to consider it the regular thing, the condition of the world, and the general tranquillity abounds after a while the public convenience; and this is always true that Hayes must needs do to the country, as he has done, to make his election a success, the great event, now so near at hand—the election of Hancock—after all the trouble and expense—will be the progressive morality of the great Republican party—to make the world just like right now.

The people of this country are pretty fully satisfied with the present condition of things, and are turning to the Working Women's Protective Union, 38 Bleeker Street.
